STUDENT SPEAK

Ravikant Jaiswal

B.Sc Cinema 2020-23

The forever debate on whether or not a film school enhances your craft is totally gibberish. When I came to AAFT, I met a bunch of people coming from different races, cultures, and having evolved on their own. The School of Cinema has the best in class faculty, who have not only worked in the industry but studied and practiced cinema very closely and are passionate enough to inspire us as budding filmmakers. I engaged with faculties of different departments, & understood my craft to an enormous level.

Before joining AAFT I was not very sure about how the study of culture would be, but coming here changed a lot of my perspective about film and that's all because of the teachers that I have. Every professor has their own style and vision about teaching cinema which is great. I can say I have evolved in terms of knowledge over the course of two years.
